Chaplain's Message: n/a

The Grand Knight reported as follows:

- Robb greeted the council in his first meeting as GK. He stated he intends to have in person meetings in the future, not virtual or hybrid. He believes that parishioners coming back to church activities is an important issue.
- Robb attended the GK workshop 2 weeks ago. State convention will be held this year in Myrtle Beach, 4/22-24.
- Our annual audit has been completed. Thanks to the Treasurer and Financial Secretary and to the Trustees.
- Robb will send out a survey to the membership, hopefully using a new notification system provided by the Diocese. The new system is flexible in how to deliver messages. We would like to get a schedule on the website which can be synced to members' phones.

Unfinished business was taken up and disposed as follows:

- Fr. Williams has a Bible study after Mass on Sundays which is very popular. On 9/12, our council will be providing BBQ as well as sides to be purchased by the council. We will cook the butts on Saturday. We will meet in the church kitchen at 3:00PM and will travel to USC, set up, and serve the meal after the 5:30PM Mass. Volunteers welcome for cooking help on Saturday.

New business was taken up and disposed as follows:

- Christmas tree sales: Robb has located a provider for Christmas trees in Banner Elk, NC. Robb would like to resume the Christmas tree sales this year. Details will be provided and a vote taken at the September meeting.
- Robb is working on a budget and will present it at the September meeting.
- We would like to do another event like the previous wine and cheese event on 10/14, to offer beer this time. There will be an Oktoberfest Beer Garden theme. There will be a Wurst wagon to provide food and a souvenir glass. This is expected to be a good fundraiser. Robb would like to discuss which charity we'd like to support at the September meeting. We will not be partnering with other organizations this year. The parish will help with some of the food. We hope that this activity will help parishioners become involved again.
- We intend to do Columbus Hope again this year. A chairman is needed.
- There will be a ministries fair in November, with food trucks, games, etc. Date to be provided and our council will provide some help.
- There won't be a parish picnic this year – a variety of events for parishioners is planned instead. Our council will be helping with many of these events.
- There will be a Mass of Remembrance; we will provide the wine. It will be in the first week of November – exact date to be provided.
- We will include in the budget the costs of providing sacramental cards, at least for Baptisms. This is to help make us visible to families in the parish and to serve our parishioners. We will discuss this at the next meeting.

Good of the Order:

- Robert Startz mentioned Ron Childress, Allison Corbett and Dan Wagner as having special medical situations right now and asked prayers for them. Pat Blake mentioned the priest on the Bishop England trek, who had great physical pain at the event.

Lecture Reflection: by Robb McBurney for Bob Nerbun

- A reflection was given on the Bread of Life discourse in John 6. Robb stressed the truth of the Eucharist in our Catholic lives. He mentioned recent surveys showing a large level of unbelief in the Real Presence among Catholics attending Mass. Robb challenged all of us to do our parts in bringing people back to the Church, in worship and ministries. Many things have withered due to Covid and we want to build back up.

Mitch

I wont be at the K of C meeting tomorrow.

Here are a couple edits to the minutes:

under GK Report -- you have Robb McBurney and Dan Wagner visited with Fr. Williams at St Thomas More ... I don't think I went with Robb to visit - I might have been part of a discussion, but it must have been someone else who visited, under Knights in Distress: Lester Johnson is no longer in distress. He died in 2019.

Thanks for the great job you do taking the minutes -- and everything else you do at St. Joseph!

Stay Safe,
Dan
